MISCELLANEOUS READING.

A CHEAP BAROMETER. The cheapest barometer for household use is made by putting a common leech into a phial of water, which may be hung up any where in the shade, near a door or window. The leech is peculiarly sensitive to approaching atmospheric changes. If the weather proves serene and mild, he remains motionless at the bottom of the glass, rolled up in a spiral form. If he is discovered at the surface of the water, you may be certain that rain is EMT LOTTERY, in each of their Single Number If a windy time is to occur, he sports with Lotteries for September, 1858, at Augusta, Ga, great and incessant activity through the water, and seldom rests until the blow has actually come on. If a beavy storm of thunder and rain is to succeed, for some days previous it lodges almost constantly outside the water, and discovers a continued useasiness of movement. In the frost, as in clear summer weather, it lies constantly at the bottom of the glass; and, in snow, as in rainy weaoo ther, it pitches its dwelling upon the very mouth of the phial, which should be left un-700 | corked to enable the animal to breathe. But a linen rag should be stretched over it to pre-000 vent an escape. A common eight ounce phial 300 is large enough, filled about three-fourths
